

Please do not let Hollywood and the MPAA control what technology I can use in my own home. Existing copyright law already protects their interests.

Requiring

the broadcast flag would be like outlawing VCRs, tape players, and Xerox copy machines, all devices that can be used to violate copyright but have greater non-infringing uses.